Reply:

1. The information sought for 2016 and 2017 is provided at Annex I. The number of enforcement actions against shop front extensions (SFEs) in 2018 will depend on the actual situation on the ground.
2. At present, the list of black spots of SFEs in a particular district is drawn up by the District Office of Home Affairs Department (HAD) and relevant enforcement departments, including the Food and Environmental Hygiene Department (FEHD), after consultation with District Council and/or District Management Committee, having regard to whether the extensions would cause imminent danger to the pedestrians and other road users, or cause severe impact on the road access, environmental hygiene, and living environment etc. The specific locations or areas are given a high priority in enforcement action. The existing list of black spots as uploaded onto HAD's website, is provided at Annex II.
3. Information on the expenditure incurred in hawker control in 2016-17, 2017-18 and 2018-19 is provided at Annex III. Taking out enforcement action against SFEs is part of the duties of FEHD's hawker control staff. Further breakdown of the expenditure on enforcement action in this aspect is not available.
